Paul Hallman

NEW WEBMASTER FOR WWW.SAN-JITSU.COM – Paul Hallman, a student of San-Jitsu in Jacksonville, Florida under Sensei Matthew Sanchez is now the official Webmaster for San-Jitsu.com. Paul is currently a student at the University of North Florida majoring in computer design and has done a fantastic job of re-designing the current site for us! Under Paul's direction, we will be enacting more additions to the website including more video feeds, features and links. national (from Germany), and Combat (from England) to name a few. Professor Sanchez

Sensei Phillip Spears

Also appointed by Soke to a new position with our worldwide San-Jitsu organization is Sensei Phillip Spears, representative for Texas who now takes on the added position of Technical Head for San-Jitsu. His duties will include being an advisor on contracts and projects involving San-Jitsu and Soke Sanchez. His background includes being a student of law and being featured in Forbes Magazine last year as having one of the top 10 collection agencies in the Nation with offices in both Texas and the Bahamas.

Soke Frank E. Sanchez

NEW FACE BOOK PAGE .....After a little under 2 weeks of being on Face Book, the new Face Book page under “Soke Frank Sanchez” has garnered over 655+ friends – not bad. If you have not registered with Soke as a “friend”, please be sure to do so.....Soke is insistent that his art be a part of the new internet technology and would like all of his instructors to have a website, as well as to have a presence on Face Book. We realize that some may have a problem with doing this because they are either not computer savvy or do not have access to a personal computer where they are, so please write for assistance, if you need it.

World-wide Seminars

On the agenda for seminars and appearances this year will be Germany for a video-taping with Masberg Productions; seminars in Orlando, California, Poland, Spain and with the local JEA power company in Jacksonville to teach self-defense tactics to their branch employees.

Loews Pacific Island Resort
